Editorial Note

Assalamualaikum Warahmatullah!

Alhamdulillah, we are going to publish our 16th Edition of SOM's E-Bulletin and will publish every month inshallah.

A school bulletin is itself an institution which prepares its contributors to actively participate in whatever is going on around them, which affects their lives. They learn to express themselves confidently as their expression is given rightful exposure. "Writing makes an exact man." And this what our bulletin is all about !

We hope it will make us perfect Muslim and understand the Islam very well.

May Allah accept all our efforts.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Short Articles

❖ Prophet Muhammad (saw)

Eliza Tasnim

Birth:

Amina (Prophet's mother) had a dream someone believed to be an angel came and said to her do you know you're going to be the mother of a king and a Prophet of this Ummah. At the high noon on Monday in the month of Rabi' Al-Awwal Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was born. It was in the year of the Elephant. It was said that when Prophet Muhammad was born a light emerged from Amina that reached all the way to the city of Busra in the land of Sham. Prophet Muhammad was loved by everyone especially his grandfather Abdul Muttalib.

Childhood:

Prophet Muhammad (SAW) was born around the year 570 CE to the Banu Hashim clan of the Quraysh tribe, one of Mecca's prominent families. His father, Abdullah, died almost six months before Muhammad was born. According to Islamic tradition, Muhammad was sent to live with a Bedouin family in the desert, as desert life was considered healthier for infants. Muhammad stayed with his foster mother, Halimah bint Abi Dhuayb, and her husband until he was two years old. At the age of six, Muhammad lost his biological mother, Amina, to illness and was raised by his paternal grandfather, Abd al-Muttalib, until he died when Muhammad was eight. He then came under the care of his uncle Abu Talib, the new leader of Banu Hashim. His early experiences of loss and hardship are seen by Muslims as a preparation for his future prophetic mission.

Youth:

While still in his teens, Muhammad accompanied his uncle on trading journeys to Syria, gaining experience in commercial trade, which was the only career open to him as an orphan. Islamic tradition states that when Muhammad was either nine or twelve, while accompanying a caravan to Syria he met a Christian monk or hermit named Bahira, who is said to have foreseen Muhammed's career as a prophet of God. Little is known of Muhammad during his later youth; available information is fragmented, and it is difficult to separate history from legend. It is known that he became a merchant and "was involved in trade between the Indian ocean and the Mediterranean Sea." Due to his upright character during this time, he acquired the nickname "al-Amin," meaning "faithful, trustworthy," and "al-Sadiq," meaning "truthful."

Marriage:

At the age of 25, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم married Khadijah bint Khuwaylid, a noble and wealthy merchant widow who was 40 years old at the time. She proposed marriage after being impressed by his honesty and character in trade. Their marriage lasted about 25 years and was monogamous. They had several children together, including Fatimah, the Prophet's youngest daughter. Khadijah was his strongest supporter, especially during the early years of revelation.

Marriage:

Sawda bint Zam'a – A widow whom he married after Khadijah's death. Aisha bint Abu Bakr – Daughter of Abu Bakr (his closest companion). She was young at marriage and became one of the most knowledgeable transmitters of hadith.

Hafsa bint Umar – Daughter of Umar ibn al-Khattab, another close companion.

Zaynab bint Khuzayma – Known as "Mother of the Poor" for her generosity.

Umm Salama (Hind bint Abi Umayya) – A wise widow with children; she became a key advisor. Zaynab bint Jahsh – Marriage carried legal significance, as it abrogated pre-Islamic adoption customs.

Juwayriya bint al-Harith – Her marriage led to the release of many captives from her tribe. Safiyya bint Huyayy – From a Jewish background; her marriage helped reconcile relations. Maymunah bint al-Harith – The last woman he married.

Marriage:

Key Points:

- His marriages were not driven primarily by desire, but by social, political, and compassionate purposes.
- He remained completely devoted to Khadijah alone for 25 years, which speaks to his loyalty and character.
- His wives, often referred to as the "Mothers of the Believers", played a crucial role in preserving and teaching Islamic knowledge.

❖ Seerah of Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Samiha Raha

Muslims believe that Islam is a faith that has always existed and that it was gradually revealed to humanity by a number of prophets, but the final and complete revelation of the faith was made through the Prophet Muhammad in the 7th century CE. Muhammad was born in Mecca in Saudi Arabia in 570.

He was a deeply spiritual man, and often spent time in meditation on Mount Hira. The traditional story of the Qur'an tells how one night in 610 he was meditating in a cave on the mountain when he was visited by the angel Jibreel who ordered him to recite.

Once Jibreel mentioned the name of Allah, Muhammad began to recite words which he came to believe were the words of God.

The Qur'an

During the rest of his life Muhammad continued to receive these revelations. The words were remembered and recorded, and form the text of the Holy Qu'ran, the Muslim scripture.

Preaching

Believing that God had chosen him as his messenger Muhammad began to preach what God had revealed to him.

The simple and clear-cut message of Islam, that there is no God but Allah, and that life should be lived in complete submission to the will of Allah, was attractive to many people, and they flocked to hear it.

The Hijrah Muhammad's popularity was seen as threatening by the people in power in Mecca, and Muhammad took his followers on a journey from Mecca to Medina in 622.

This journey is called the Hijrah (migration) and the event was seen as so important for Islam that 622 is the year in which the Islamic calendar begins.

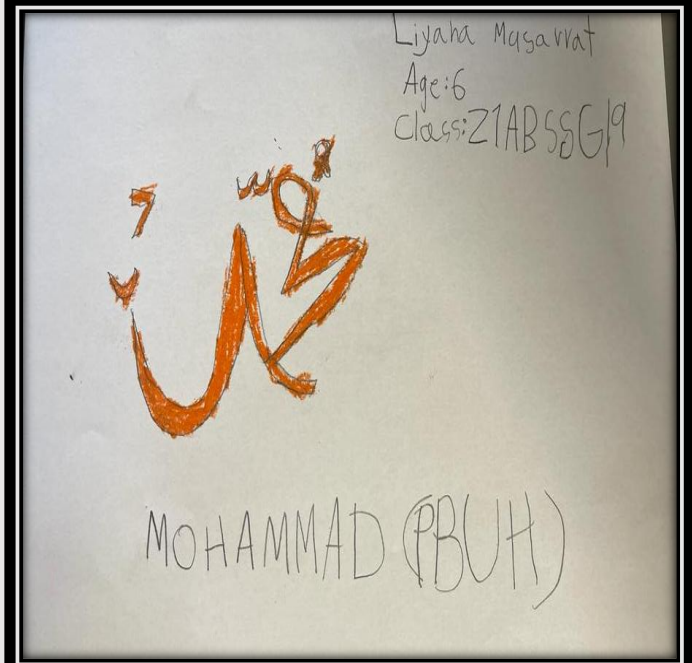

The return to Mecca Within ten years Muhammad had gained so many followers that he was able to return and conquer Mecca. From this time on he was generally accepted by the faithful as the true final Prophet of God. Muhammad continued to lead his community both spiritually and in earthly matters until his death in 632.
